

Africa's Greatest Bakers

AGB Awards Nominations Terms and Conditions

- i) The AGB Online Nomination Process is the sole platform where nominations will be accepted.
- ii) Nominations may be submitted either directly from the individual, company, or from a third party.
- iii) All Entries should include contact details, social handlings and website (if applicable) of the nominated individual, company...etc.
- iv) Supporting material may be required. Please make sure that any extra resources you want to contribute support the submission that was made. Brochures, ads, pictures, and other documents can all be considered supporting materials.
- v) The AGB Awards winners won't be informed before the ceremony; nonetheless, we strongly advise the nominee to attend the event.
- vi) Each winner is expected to accept the award on stage at the Awards night
- vii) If a nominee would like to withdraw from the awards, they must notify the event in writing at least 30 days in advance.
- viii) A panel of independent judges chooses the AGBA winners.
- ix) If a nominee wants to attend the Dinner and Awards Night, they must either buy a ticket or make a reservation. The nominee will be given the choice to attend the Summit.
- x) All data entered into the online nomination process, along with any accompanying documentation, will be kept private and utilized solely by AGBA and the adjudication panel to determine the AGB Awards finalists and winners.
- xi) All events are presumed to be filmed for dissemination, and this should be stated. You agree to release Africa's Greatest Bakers, its owners, operators, officers, and duly designated representatives acting in an official or unofficial capacity from all liability regarding your image, including use and distribution, by attending any of our events.
- xii) Entries that do not meet the requirements of these Official Regulations or are incomplete, late, misdirected, altered, destroyed, or sent through improper channels may be disqualified.
- xiii) By submitting a nomination or confirming the nomination, participants acknowledge and agree to follow the Official Rules and the Sponsor's and Awarding Board's decisions regarding all contest-related matters, which are final, binding, and conclusive. An entrant will be disqualified along with all of the submissions they have submitted if it is found that they have entered in a manner that is not authorized by these Official Regulations. Verification of entries will occur during the judging process.

xiv) Every submission becomes the organizers of AGBA's exclusive property. Unless the entry specifies otherwise, the organizers may occasionally email the entrant to notify them of promotional opportunities and to follow up on their nominations.

xv) If a participant does not fulfil the requirements within the allotted time during the Contest, the technical team reserves the right to disqualify the participant. This can entail being unavailable for fact-checking or interviews. In addition, if it is found that the nomination form in any way misrepresents the entrant's accomplishments, the entry may be rejected or the award may be retrieved.